OFFICE OF THE CLERK

PRO HAC VICE ADMISSION - INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

Local Rule 83.4 sets forth the requirements for admission pro hac vice

LR 83.4. Permission to Practice in a Particular Case.

Any member in good standing of the bar of any other district court of the United States who is not a resident of this district and who does not maintain an office in this district for the practice of law may be permitted to appear and participate in a particular case before Court, whether civil or criminal, with the prior approval of this Court and upon the payment of a minimal fee, subject to the following provisions.

(a) The Court requires, in a case where a party is represented only by counsel not a member of the bar of this Court, such counsel to designate, by a writing filed in that case some willing member of the local bar of this Court upon whom motions and papers may be served. That designation shall not become effective until such local counsel has entered a written appearance herein. In any case in which an attorney makes an appearance in any action or case pending in this court and said attorney is not a member of the bar of this Court, he shall certify that he is a member in good standing of a district court of the United States and shall file a certificate of good standing from that court with the Clerk of the Court.

(b) Any attorneys representing the United States Government, or any agency thereof, may appear and participate in particular actions or proceedings in his official capacity without a petition for admission, provided he is a member of a bar of a district court of the United States.
